RE: Public Records Request – law enforcement trip to Israel

Dear Ms. Young:

This serves as final response to your October 2, 2018 Public Records Requests directed to the Rhode Island State Police seeking copies of emails between the respective agencies and fitting certain other specific criteria. Your request is governed by the Access to Public Records Act contained in R.I.G.L. Chapter 38-2. In response to a request for public records, an agency is required to make available for public disclosure those records that are responsive to a request, are in the possession of the agency and are not otherwise exempted from disclosure.

We have attached eighty (80) pages of documents directly responsive to your request. Rhode Island General Law § 38-2-2(4)(D)(c) exempts personal information relating to an individual in any files and law enforcement records that could reasonably be expected to be an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy or could disclose information furnished on a confidential basis. In accordance with this expectation of privacy, some portions of the enclosed records have been redacted.

Note that the actual time expended in preparation of the 80 pages responsive was 1 ½ hours. Therefore, the fee would be $19.50 which represents .5 hour at $15 per hour and 12.00 for the 80 pages (.15 per page) being provided. We are issuing a refund check for the difference of $14.25 made payable to Muckrock and will forward it to Dept MR 61897, 411A Highland Avenue, Somerville, MA 02144-2516.

Pursuant to R.I. Gen. Laws § 38-2-8, you have the right to appeal this to Lieutenant Colonel Kevin M. Barry, Acting Superintendent, Rhode Island State Police, 311 Danielson Pike, North Scituate, Rhode Island 02857. Or you may file a complaint with the Department of the Attorney General, 150 South Main Street, Providence, Rhode Island, 02903, or the Rhode Island Superior Court of the county where the record(s) are maintained.

Please feel free to contact our office should you need anything further.

Sincerely,

Talia,

Thank you very much for including the Rhode Island State Police in the Advanced Training School. I am including Lieutenant Richard Ptaszek in this email because he would be our choice to attend this training. Lieutenant Ptaszek is a twenty year veteran of the State Police and is currently in charge of our Fusion Center, which handles any of our terrorism, homeland security, or special investigations. Again, thank you very much for your invitation and we look forward to working with you.

Respectfully,

LTC Philbin

Dear Lt. Col. Philbin,

Following up on your email with Robert, I am writing to share information with you about the next session of the Anti-Defamation League's Advanced Training School™ (ATS) course on Extremist and Terrorist Threats, should you (or another top executive from your agency) be interested in applying to participate in the training. The next ATS session will take place from June 18-20, 2018 in Washington, DC. ATS is recognized as one of the premier counter-terrorism training programs in the country, and is one of the most sought after. Nearly 1,200 of the nation's top law enforcement leaders, representing over 250 agencies, have graduated from the course, which was created by the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) in 2004. You will find more information about the training attached and below.

- About ATS. ATS provides law enforcement executives and commanders with critical information and resources to increase their capabilities in combating domestic and international extremist and terrorist threats. The training is designed to provide law enforcement leaders with practical and useful information which may be used to prevent, investigate and respond to incidents and threats. ATS is acclaimed for the excellence of its curriculum, the skill and knowledge of its presenters and the quality of its participants.
- Criteria for admission. Candidates must be senior level law enforcement who oversee special operations, intelligence, counterterrorism, homeland security, special investigations, or related areas. In order to serve as many agencies as possible, no more than one candidate will be admitted from any agency (or federal field office) per ATS session.

- Class size and selectivity. A maximum of forty (40) law enforcement leaders are accepted to participate in each session.
- Costs. The Anti-Defamation League is responsible for expenses related to participation in the training, including hotel accommodations and meals for the duration of the training. Participants are responsible for their transportation to and from Washington, DC.
- Deadline. Completed applications must be received by Friday, April 13.
- To apply. Click here: www.adl.org/ats Enter Password: [REDACTED]

Dear Ken,

I hope that you are doing well. I am writing to invite you to join ADL New England's Law Enforcement Committee. The Committee, which is comprised of ADL board members and law enforcement colleagues, oversees our work with law enforcement. In particular, we are currently working on creating an annual award for law enforcement, to celebrate outstanding achievements in combatting hate and extremism. We would value your input and insights on this, and would love for you to join us at the next committee meeting, which will take place over lunch on Thursday, January 25th, at 12:00 pm, at ADL's offices (40 Court St., Boston, MA 02108).

I know that it is not long off, but hope that you will be able to join us.

If you are unable to join this upcoming meeting given the short notice, I hope that you will join us next time. The next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, April 18th at 12:00 pm at ADL's office.

Subject: [EXTERNAL] ADL trip to Israel - Logistics

Good afternoon,

Welcome to the ADL Leadership, Resilience and Counter-Terrorism Seminar in Israel. Although we are not leaving until December, we wanted to provide a couple of updates regarding our trip.

- 1) There will be approximately 15 law enforcement professionals in our group. We are in the process of finalizing the group and will send out a complete list of participants in the next couple of weeks.
- 2) Our trip begins in Boston at Logan Airport. Please plan to arrive at 6:00 PM. We will meet at the El Al ticket counter in Terminal E.

Sunday December 2 nd (Monday, December 3 rd)	El Al #016 Depart Boston 9:00 PM	Arrive Tel Aviv 2:55 PM
Tuesday, December 11 th (Tuesday, December 11 th)	El Al #017 Depart Tel Aviv 12:05 AM	Arrive Boston 5:30 AM

On the return flight we depart after midnight on December 11th and arrive home the same day. We will have hotel rooms in Tel Aviv on the day of departure from Israel. A detailed itinerary will not be available until closer to our departure date. It is a long flight and we have found that a good pair of noise cancelling headphones can ease the journey.

- 3) All expenses will be covered by ADL, including airfare from Boston to Tel Aviv (not including upgrades to premium economy seats – see below) , all hotels, meals, tours, guides, and admission costs at museums.
- 4) If you have any seating, meal, or frequent flier requests, please let us know. We request aisle seats for everyone. The airline tickets will be issued in the upcoming months and we will send everyone an electronic ticket.
- 5) There are also a limited number of premium economy seats, which cost around $160 extra each way. If you would like one of these premium seats, please let us know, and we will do our best to upgrade you. Because there are a limited number of premium seats available, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to upgrade you, and premium seats will be assigned on a first come first serve basis. Should you be upgraded, you will be responsible for the added charge.
- 6) Airline tickets, packing list and hotel information will be sent out in the next month or so. One item to think about now is patches, pins and caps for the Israel Police (it is very likely they will have the same for you).
- 7) We compile a short bio book on the participants as way to help everyone get to know one another and we also share it with the Israel National Police in advance. Please send a bio and head shot to Jake Stuckey at jstuckey@adl.org.
- 8) If you are in the process of renewing your passport, please provide Talia with the details once you have it. This information is required to clear all security issues in advance. If you are traveling on a red government passport, please let us know as you may need to obtain a visa. There is no visa requirement for “blue” American passports.

- 9) Additionally, we wanted to bring the following to your attention: Jewish Voice for Peace (JVP), a radical anti-Israel activist group that advocates for a complete economic, cultural and academic boycott of the state of Israel, has been sending Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests to a number of law enforcement agencies that have participated in ADL's seminars in Israel. We wanted to provide you with background on JVP and their activities.

"Deadly Exchange" is their latest propaganda campaign, which falsely asserts that American Jewish institutions are responsible for rising levels of police brutality and racism against people of color in the U.S. because we sponsor joint training programs between American and Israeli law enforcement agencies. To quote their website, in such law enforcement exchange programs, "'worst practices' are shared to promote and extend discriminatory and repressive policing in both countries including extrajudicial executions, shoot-to-kill policies, police murders, racial profiling, massive spying and surveillance, deportation and detention, and attacks on human rights defenders." In some cities, JVP has local affiliates that go by different names. In one small city, their local affiliate even petitioned the local city council to drop associations with these programs. We wanted to make sure you were aware of them and their agenda, should you hear from them. Here is a link to additional information about JVP on ADL's website.

Should you receive a FOIA request, which may come through an organization called MuckRock, we respectfully ask that we be notified if your agency considers disclosing any of the documents or information we've provided. You may notify us at generalcounsel@adl.org.

- 10) Please feel free to contact us should you have any questions or concerns. In addition, if you would like your executive assistant to be copied on email correspondence, please let us know.

We look forward to traveling with each of you.

Best,

Robert and Talia

ABOUT THE ADVANCED TRAINING SCHOOL (ATS)

Created by the Anti-Defamation League, the most respected private authority on extremism, the Advanced Training School (ATS) is recognized as one of the nation's premier counter-terrorism training programs. The three day course provides law enforcement leaders with state of the art information and instruction on the full spectrum of domestic and international terrorist threats, tactics and movements. Led by the foremost experts on extremism and terrorism, the curriculum is continually being updated to address the evolving nature of terrorism. Offered twice a year, with a class size limited to forty, more than one thousand of the nation's top law enforcement leaders, representing over 250 agencies, have graduated from the course.

ATS's curriculum includes:

- The latest in expertise, information, and resources to increase the capability of law enforcement executives and commanders to prevent, investigate and respond to incidents and threats.
- An examination of major types of extremist movements, including homegrown Islamic extremism, white supremacy, and anti-government extremism.
- Case studies of recent terrorist acts that provide lessons learned based on the firsthand experiences of law enforcement leaders.

ABOUT THE ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE

The Anti-Defamation League (ADL), founded in 1913, is recognized as the leading authority on extremism, terrorism and hate, both foreign and domestic. Good afternoon,

Apologies for the delayed reply. I have two options to consider. First is ADL's Advanced Training School in Washington DC. The next class is in June and Talia will share the application. Second is we are planning another counter-terrorism seminar in Israel in December. Perhaps we could schedule a time for us to meet? We would be happy to come to Rhode Island.

Let me know, and in the interim Talia will share the ATS application.

Subject: ADL New England's Law Enforcement Committee - Invitation

Dear Ken,

I hope that you are doing well. I am writing to invite you to join ADL New England's Law Enforcement Committee. The Committee, which is comprised of ADL board members and law enforcement colleagues, oversees our work with law enforcement. In particular, we are currently working on creating an annual award for law enforcement, to celebrate outstanding achievements in combatting hate and extremism. We would value your input and insights on this, and would love for you to join us at the next committee meeting, which will take place over lunch on Thursday, January 25th, at 12:00 pm, at ADL's offices (40 Court St., Boston, MA 02108).

I know that it is not long off, but hope that you will be able to join us.

If you are unable to join this upcoming meeting given the short notice, I hope that you will join us next time. The next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, April 18th at 12:00 pm at ADL's office.

Dear Lt. Col. Philbin,

Following up on your email with Robert, I am writing to share information with you about the next session of the Anti-Defamation League's Advanced Training School™ (ATS) course on Extremist and Terrorist Threats, should you (or another top executive from your agency) be interested in applying to participate in the training. The next ATS session will take place from June 18-20, 2018 in Washington, DC. ATS is recognized as one of the premier counter-terrorism training programs in the country, and is one of the most sought after. Nearly 1,200 of the nation's top law enforcement leaders, representing over 250 agencies, have graduated from the course, which was created by the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) in 2004. You will find more information about the training attached and below.

- About ATS. ATS provides law enforcement executives and commanders with critical information and resources to increase their capabilities in combating domestic and international extremist and terrorist threats. The training is designed to provide law enforcement leaders with practical and useful information which may be used to prevent, investigate and respond to incidents and threats. ATS is acclaimed for the excellence of its curriculum, the skill and knowledge of its presenters and the quality of its participants.
- Criteria for admission. Candidates must be senior level law enforcement who oversee special operations, intelligence, counterterrorism, homeland security, special investigations, or related areas. In order to serve as many agencies as possible, no more than one candidate will be admitted from any agency (or federal field office) per ATS session.

- Class size and selectivity. A maximum of forty (40) law enforcement leaders are accepted to participate in each session.
- Costs. The Anti-Defamation League is responsible for expenses related to participation in the training, including hotel accommodations and meals for the duration of the training. Participants are responsible for their transportation to and from Washington, DC.
- Deadline. Completed applications must be received by Friday, April 13.
- To apply. Click here: www.adl.org/ats Enter Password: [REDACTED]

ADL UNVEILS FIRST OF-ITS-KIND INTERACTIVE MAP PINPOINTING EXTREMISM AND HATE ACROSS U.S.

New York, NY, August 9, 2018 ... In advance of the first anniversary of the violent white supremacist rally in Charlottesville, Va., that shook the nation, the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) today launched the ADL H.E.A.T. (Hate, Extremism, Anti-Semitism, Terrorism) Map™ -- a first-of-a-kind interactive map detailing extremist and anti-Semitic incidents in the U.S. The map is a visual reflection of select proprietary datasets developed by ADL experts in its Center on Extremism.

“It’s important to remember that extremist activity is not just confined to a historic town in Virginia, but rather an issue faced by communities every day across the country,” ADL CEO and National Director Jonathan Greenblatt said. “As extremists continue to spread hate and incite violence using any and all means that they can, ADL is committed to exposing their efforts and fighting to prevent the hate they aim to spread.”

The ADL H.E.A.T. Map™ is accompanied by a report that evaluates the ways the white supremacist movement — and the “Alt-Right” in particular — has changed in the year since the Charlottesville and provides a full overview of the complicated current state of white supremacy. Among the trends observed, the Alt-Right has embraced podcasts as a way to reach followers. White supremacist podcast audiences are not large by the standards of mainstream podcasts but represent significant audiences for white supremacists.

Additionally, white supremacists have increased on-campus and off-campus propaganda efforts in the past year. Since the beginning of 2017, ADL's Center on Extremism has tracked more than 900 white supremacist propaganda incidents, from distributions of white supremacist literature to display of white supremacist handbills, posters, and more. The 2017-18 school year saw a 77 percent increase of incidents on campus from the previous academic year, with 292 cases reported, compared to 165 in 2016-2017.

The initial data in the new map consists of more than 4,500 data points representing a range of extremist activities, including:

- Extremist-related murders (2008-2017)
- Terrorist plots and attacks (2002-2017)
 - Right-wing: 2002-2017
 - Islamist: 2002-2017
 - Left-wing: 2008-2017
- Extremist shootouts with police (2008-2017)
- White supremacist propaganda on and off campus (Fall 2016-to date)
- White supremacist rallies (2017-2018)
- Anti-Semitic incidents (2016-2017)

The map allows users to see the types of tactics extremists use, read details on specific incidents, compare activity by type and or state, and access and download raw data.

“As extremism and hate increases its reach, so too will our efforts to expose them locally and nationally,” said George Selim, ADL's Senior Vice President of Programs. “These resources are educational tools for all who are committed to fighting hate. We look forward to working with partners to strengthen our research and capabilities to prevent hate from spreading further.”

ADL is the world's leading anti-hate organization. Founded in 1913 in response to an escalating climate of anti-Semitism and bigotry, its timeless mission is to protect the Jewish people and to secure justice and fair treatment for all. Today, ADL continues to fight all forms of hate with the same vigor and passion. A global leader in exposing extremism, delivering anti-bias education, and fighting hate online, ADL is the first call when acts of anti-Semitism occur. ADL's ultimate goal is a world in which no group or individual suffers from bias, discrimination or hate. More at www.adl.org.

ABOUT THE ADVANCED TRAINING SCHOOL (ATS)

Created by ADL (Anti-Defamation League), the most respected private authority on extremism, the Advanced Training School (ATS) is recognized as one of the nation's premier counter-terrorism training programs. The three day course provides law enforcement leaders with state of the art information and instruction on the full spectrum of domestic and international terrorist threats, tactics and movements. Led by the foremost experts on extremism and terrorism, the curriculum is continually being updated to address the evolving nature of terrorism. Offered twice a year, with a class size limited to forty, more than 1,200 of the nation's top law enforcement leaders, representing over 250 agencies, have graduated from the course.

ATS's curriculum includes:

- The latest in expertise, information and resources to increase the capability of law enforcement executives and commanders to prevent, investigate and respond to incidents and threats.
- An examination of major types of extremist movements, including homegrown Islamist extremism, white supremacy and anti-government extremism.
- Case studies of recent terrorist acts that provide lessons learned from the firsthand experiences of law enforcement leaders.
- Discussions about the critical importance of protecting civil rights and liberties in law enforcement's efforts to combat terrorism.

A Homegrown Threat: Islamist Extremist Plots in the United States

Wednesday, May 16, 2018

11:00-11:30 am (EST)

Join us for a webinar briefing about the findings of a new report from ADL's Center on Extremism, focusing on the trajectory of Islamist extremist plots in the U.S. since 2002. It will include an overview of evolving trends drawn from an analysis of 98 Islamist extremist plots and attacks in the United States over the past 16 years. Among the key findings, we note that the most significant threat does not come from individuals residing outside U.S. borders; instead, the terrorism tends to be homegrown, strongly influenced by pervasive propaganda from virtual terrorist networks.

Subject: Reminder: ATS Applications Due Next Week
Attachments: ADL Advanced Training School.pdf; Agencies with Commanders Trained at ATS.pdf

Good morning. This is just a friendly reminder that applications for the upcoming session of our Advanced Training School™ (ATS) course on Extremist and Terrorist Threats are due next week. If there is a candidate whom you'd like to recommend for the course, please send him/her the information and application link below, with a reminder that all applications must be received by the end of next week in order to be considered. We appreciate your help identifying strong candidates for the class. Thank you!

The next session of the Anti-Defamation League's (ADL) Advanced Training School (ATS) course on extremist and terrorist threats will take place from June 18-20 in Washington, DC. ATS is recognized as one of the premier counter-terrorism training programs in the country, and is one of the most sought after. Nearly 1,200 of the nation's top law enforcement leaders, representing over 250 agencies, have graduated from the course, which was created by the Anti-Defamation League in 2004.

- About ATS. ATS provides law enforcement executives and commanders with critical information and resources to increase their capabilities in combating domestic and international extremist and terrorist threats. The training is designed to provide law enforcement leaders with practical and useful information which may be used to prevent, investigate and respond to incidents and threats. ATS is acclaimed for the excellence of its curriculum, the skill and knowledge of its presenters and the quality of its participants.
- Criteria for admission. Candidates must be senior level law enforcement who oversee special operations, intelligence, counterterrorism, homeland security, special investigations, or related areas. In order to serve as many agencies as possible, no more than one candidate will be admitted from any agency (or federal field office) per ATS session.
- Class size and selectivity. A maximum of forty (40) law enforcement leaders are accepted to participate in each session.
- Costs. The Anti-Defamation League is responsible for expenses related to participation in the training, including hotel accommodations and meals for the duration of the training. Participants are responsible for their transportation to and from Washington, DC.
- Deadline. Completed applications must be received by Friday, April 13.
- To apply. Click here: www.adl.org/ats Enter Password [REDACTED]

The Anti-Defamation League (ADL), founded in 1913, is recognized as the leading authority on extremism, terrorism and hate, both foreign and domestic. ADL works in close partnership with federal, state, local, and military law enforcement and is recognized as a leader in the development of innovative training. Headquartered in New York City, the League has a staff of more than 300 and a network of 26 regional offices.

ABOUT THE ADVANCED TRAINING SCHOOL (ATS)

Created by the Anti-Defamation League, the most respected private authority on extremism, the Advanced Training School (ATS) is recognized as one of the nation's premier counter-terrorism training programs. The three day course provides law enforcement leaders with state of the art information and instruction on the full spectrum of domestic and international terrorist threats, tactics and movements. Led by the foremost experts on extremism and terrorism, the curriculum is continually being updated to address the evolving nature of terrorism. Offered twice a year, with a class size limited to forty, more than one thousand of the nation's top law enforcement leaders, representing over 250 agencies, have graduated from the course.

ATS's curriculum includes:

- The latest in expertise, information, and resources to increase the capability of law enforcement executives and commanders to prevent, investigate and respond to incidents and threats.
- An examination of major types of extremist movements, including homegrown Islamic extremism, white supremacy, and anti-government extremism.
- Case studies of recent terrorist acts that provide lessons learned based on the firsthand experiences of law enforcement leaders.

The Anti-Defamation League (ADL) invites law enforcement leaders to join us for a webinar briefing on

A Homegrown Threat: Islamist Extremist Plots in the United States

Wednesday, May 16, 2018

11:00-11:30 am (EST)

Join us for a webinar briefing about the findings of a new report from ADL's Center on Extremism, focusing on the trajectory of Islamist extremist plots in the U.S. since 2002. It will include an overview of evolving trends drawn from an analysis of 98 Islamist extremist plots and attacks in the United States over the past 16 years. Among the key findings, we note that the most significant threat does not come from individuals residing outside U.S. borders; instead, the terrorism tends to be homegrown, strongly influenced by pervasive propaganda from virtual terrorist networks.

Subject: Welcome to the ADL Alumni Network

On behalf of the Anti-Defamation League (ADL), I would like to welcome you to the newly launched ADL Law Enforcement Executives' Alumni Network. The Alumni Network was created exclusively for law enforcement leaders who have graduated from one or more of ADL's national law enforcement programs and is designed for continued access to our resources, programs and events. We look forward to your participation in our alumni activities.

Benefits will include:

- Access to virtual briefings and webinars from renowned experts from ADL and law enforcement on critical issues, including: extremism, terrorism, hate crimes, leadership, police community relations, and trust building;
- Previews of new ADL resources and reports on the latest trends we are tracking in extremism, terrorism, and hate;
- New training opportunities to assist law enforcement in managing implicit bias and building trust with the communities you serve;
- Information on best practices and innovations in preventing and responding hate crimes;
- Invitations to ADL gatherings at major law enforcement conferences and events;
- Opportunities to connect and engage with other members of the Alumni Network;
- Opportunities to recommend colleagues for future sessions of ADL's national law enforcement programs;
- And access to resources and support through ADL's network of 26 Regional Offices.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions, and to let us know additional ways that we can be of assistance or service to you, your agency and our program alumni.

We look forward to continuing our work together towards the goal of increasing the security of our nation and the safety of its communities.

Sincerely,

Elise
